

Privacy Policy and Disclaimers

Privacy Policy Notice – The Gillespie County Attorney’s Office gathers and maintains medical records that are in electronic format. These records are subject to disclosure in electronic format as part of the normal discovery and litigation process in a criminal case.

Disclaimer – The Gillespie County Attorney’s Office represents the State of Texas in criminal cases and does not represent private individuals or defendants in criminal cases. There is no attorney-client relationship between defendants in criminal cases and the Gillespie County Attorney’s Office. Criminal defendants seeking legal advice should contact a private attorney for legal representation or make an application with the court for a court-appointed attorney.

General Disclaimer of Attorney-Client Relationship —The content of this website is intended to provide general information about the Gillespie County Attorney’s Office, is not intended to be legal advice, and should not be relied upon as legal advice by anyone. The website is neither an offer to represent anyone, nor is it intended to create an attorney-client relationship with anyone. The content of any Internet e-mail sent to the Gillespie County Attorney’s Office or any of its lawyers will not create an attorney-client relationship and will not be treated as confidential.

Note about E-Mail and Confidential Information-Do not send or include any information that you wish to keep confidential in any email. By submitting information by email or other method in response to this website, you agree that (1) the communication does NOT create any attorney-client relationship in any manner between you and any attorneys in Gillespie County Attorney’s Office, (2) any information that you do submit is not confidential or privileged, and (3) any information that you do submit will not be treated by the Gillespie County Attorney’s Office as confidential unless and until the Gillespie County Attorney’s Office subsequently agrees in writing to enter into a written attorney-client representation agreement with you.

Links — Any links within this website that lead to other websites are provided for the visitor's convenience to provide further general information. The Gillespie County Attorney's Office does not sponsor, endorse, or otherwise approve such linked materials and does not control or guarantee the accuracy, relevance, timeliness, or completeness of the information contained in such links.

Note about Attorneys — Lawyers resident in all offices, unless otherwise indicated in an individual attorney biography, are not certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.